NO. 6

MT. VERNON.

Granville Owens, living on Brush Creek, lost three fingers in a shingle mill.

Mack Estes died Tuesday night after an illness of some weeks. He was a carpenter and cabinet workman of ability. His health had been bad for many years.

We are informed that the L. & N. has taken the contract to build the Brush Creek extension of 10 miles to Jackson county line. Engineers are now at work making locating surveys.

Chris Sowder, who had one hand badly crushed in a cane mill many years ago, had that member amputated Wednesday by the doctors on account of a cancerous growth having set up some months since.

Jones & Smith, a Livingston mercantile firm, has been placed in involuntary bankruptcy by creditors. We are told by reliable parties that the liabilities are placed at $16,000, and assets run from $5,000 to $6,000.

Pittsburg, Pa., sent five Jones brothers to Brush Creek, this county, to investigate the mineral resources of that portion of Rockcastle county. Their resemblance is remarkable. Diamond drills and other contrivances are being used by them to ascertain if the coal beds will justify them in putting in extensive plants.

S. C. Franklin has returned from Athens accompanied by his father and mother, who will make their home with him in the future. Mr. Franklin certainly fulfills that commandment relative to parents. Mr. Jack Adams, of Paint Lick, was a visitor to our town this week. W. C. Champland wife, of Paint Lick, were here this week visiting parents and friends. W. T. Short, deputy U. S. marshal, is taking in view of Jones & Smith's stock at Livingston, Judge Williams and Editor Albright were in Louisville this week. Mrs. D. N. Williams is improving. Your correspondent has a bad case of inflammation of the eyes, or something which shows four lines where only one is written. We return thanks for the fact that we are enabled, after untold suffering for days, to see a little. Henry V. Bastin, student at K. S. C., Lexington, is at home in Lancaster for a few days. Mr. Bastin is a close student and is away up in his studies, especially in the electrical line.

From An Appreciative Subscribers.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., March 12.—We certainly appreciate your kindness in sending us the dear old INTERIOR JOURNAL. We impatiently await its arrival. It does not reach us for two days after it is printed. Sorry to say there has been only one Crab Orchard letter.

We have prolonged our visit one more week in order to enjoy more of the Crescent City. We visited the mint, where the government turns out $60,000 per day. Sunday we visited Chalmette, where the battle of New Orleans was fought and won by our beloved Jackson. Also visited the cathedral where prayers were held for him on that memorial day. Sarah Bernhardt is the drawing card this week. We will hear her Saturday night. She is not the only attraction though for the races seem to have a greater magnetic power for the male sex. I must confess I belong to the latter attraction. R. H. Branaugh's Juanita now owned by T. H. Stevens, won first money a few days ago. The weather has been cold for three days and it frosted last night for the first time since we came down. I will be at home in time to cast my vote in the primary. We thought we had seen a great deal of the city until we went up in the tower of a large building, 11 stories high. Then to our surprise we found we had only visited the most important parts. I hope everything is moving along nicely in dear old Kentucky. Keep political affairs straight for I know you will give things a hot roast if they do not go right as you are not afraid to speak when duty demands you.

Yours friend,
CURTIS GOVER.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE FOR CHILDREN.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular banker of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug."—Sold by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Watts—I remember yet, how, when I misbehaved, my mother used to strap me to a bed-post.

Potts—When I misbehaved, my father used to strap me to a finish.—Indianapolis Press.

Judge Miller decided that the will of the voters was apparent on the turnpike question, and declared the Fiscal Court of Jefferson county empowered to purchase and free them.

LAND, STOCK, CROPS, ETC.

T. D. Raney sold to H. A. Pleasant a bunch of hogs at 485.

Malcolm, 2:20, brought $1,925 at auction at Richmond, Ind.

Brown & Creek sold 75 hogs to McCarly & Lawson for 4½.

Five hundred bales of Timothy hay for sale J. S. Owsley Sr., Stanford, Ky.

Wils Dunn bought of Jeff Dunn a yearling stallion by Asland Wilks for $300.

E. T. Pence, Jr., sold a cow to J. M. Petrus for $30 and bought of him 14 hogs at 4½.

Jonkey Cochran rode five winners and came second on his sixth mount at New Orleans the other day.

It is stated that Garry Herrmann, favorite in the Kentucky Derby, has been bought by W. C. Whitney for $25,000.

The amount of wheat in farmers' hands on March 1st was 128,100,000 bushels; corn, 736,200,000; oats about 202,800,000.

Six acres of R. G. Evans' hemp averaged 2,000 pounds. Joe Irvine made an average of 1,650 on nine acres.—Danville News.

Bright Herring sold to Joe McAlister 51 sheep for $200. D. N. Prewitt bought of Will Johnson 21 hogs at 5c—Advocate.

The Marion Falcon reports the sale of 28 medium ewes at $5, a jock to T. M. Estes for $652 and a pair of five-year-old work mules for $267.

J. B. Haggins has bought of Easton & Larabee their string of racers, including Kinley Mack, Ben Holliday, High Order and many others for $150,000.

The best way to warn fowls early in the morning before the scalded feed is given is to scatter a little grain in the litter and let them scratch. It is better than red pepper.

George D. Robinson, late of the firm of Logan & Robinson, of Lancaster, bought this week of J. B. McKinney, his farm of 227 acres in the West End, for $12,500—about $55.

Mark Hardin bought of Jacob Stevens a lot of hogs at 4½ and of J. L. Beazley some of same at same. He sold to D. C. Allen 13 hogs at 4½. Mr. Hardin bought of George Middleton a sow and pig for $15.

J. F. Cook, who cried the sale, tells us that everything sold well at the sale of the late Mrs. Celia Conn. Horses brought $50 to $70, mules $10, cows $28 to $30, two-year-old heifers $22, yearlings $14, wethers $2.50, hogs 4½ to 5c.

At Dr. Best's sale near Millersburg, hogs brought $5 to $6, 30 common stock ewes $5, yearling steers $3.50, two-year-old steers $13, yearling heifers $27.50, milk cows $30 to $45, calves $15 to $18, corn $2.50, baled hay $10.50 per ton.

George, Ike, James, Jack and Isaac Shelby have leased 15,000 acres of land for grazing purposes in Osage county, O. T., and will engage extensively in stock raising. They anticipate leaving Junction City about the first of April.

The high-price record for the year on tobacco was broken this week at the St. Louis House. On Thursday this house sold a horsehead of cigarette wrapper from Shelby county for $17.75; the highest previous price being $16.75. The American Tobacco Co. was the purchaser.—Farmers Home Journal.

Messrs. J. R. and E. H. Rcazley are the first gentlemen to have horse cards printed at this office. They are standing at the low price of $12.50 to insure a living colt, Marlon Squirrel, 900, one of the best sons of the great Blue Squirrel, 58. His further pedigree and description will appear in these columns later.

1,000 acres of corn, grass and meadow lands to rent for balance of this year and to lease for 1902 and 1903 to responsible parties only. Will rent or lease for lots to suit renter. Dwelling and several tenant houses, also 100 acres of growing wheat. See display ad later of stock, personality, &c. A barn can be secured by applying at once. George S. Shelby, Shelby City, Ky.

OTTENHEIM.

Max Locowitz, who lost his hand, is around again.

Wm. James lost three children with black measles.

The suit of Petzold against Kloha is set for the June term of court.

John Griffin cut Walter Denny's shoulder blade in two with an ax Saturday night.

Candidates are numerous and active and we wish they could all be elected, as they are the lot of citizens.

Too many friends of Miss Lizzie Petzold are glad to see her in their midst again. Mr. Wm. Husar has put a new ceiling on his store and has restocked it with new goods. John Kloha is able to be out.

AN HONEST MEDICINE FOR LA GRIPPE.

George W. Hauk, of South Gardiner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used only one bottle of it and the chills, cold and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Watts—I remember yet, how, when I misbehaved, my mother used to strap me to a bed-post.

Potts—When I misbehaved, my father used to strap me to a finish.—Indianapolis Press.

Judge Miller decided that the will of the voters was apparent on the turnpike question, and declared the Fiscal Court of Jefferson county empowered to purchase and free them.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Middlesboro is to have an Auditorium with a seating capacity of 1,500. Gov. Beckham refused to parole Jas. Cruse, sent up from Pulaski for manslaughter.

Squire Pinkston, of Tablow, Mercer county, fell backward while pulling off his boots and broke his leg.

Peter Bryant, aged 11, was held for the murder of George Curry, near Columbia. His mother was discharged.

New post offices have been established at Gadberry, Adair county; Hartwell, Casey county, and Zenith, Whitley county.

Sol and Jim Griffin, indicted for the murder of G. W. Thacker at Manchester, were arrested at East Bernstadt and taken to the scene.

Alf Neal shot and killed Frank Walker, also colored at Manchester. He took exceptions to a remark made by Walker in regard to his wife.

After several months' continuous operation at Burgin the American Straw Board Company at Circleville, O., has moved its headquarters to Danville.

Rev. J. P. Steele, a familiar figure about Harrodsburg on account of his salvation army tendencies, was adjudged insane and ordered to the asylum.

A. W. Huggins, of London, has secured the right of way to build a telephone line to Manchester, and is organizing a stock company for that purpose.

At East Bernstadt, Laurel county, Bill Sears, white, shot and mortally wounded Henry Larue, colored. After the shooting three alleged "blind tigers" were demolished.

George Whitehead, an L. & N. brakeman who was hurt in the Lebanon Junction yards five weeks ago, is dead of his injuries. He was married just two weeks before the accident.

It is rumored that trains Nos. 9 and 10, which are known as the Blue Grass Specials, will on the first of next month run through to Somerton, instead of to Junction City, as at present.—News.

Josiah Smith, has sold his farm one mile south of Burgin, for $15,000 and will return to Tennessee. He realized about $8,000 profit on the sale, having purchased it a few years ago for $7,000.

The case against Willis Crutchfield, age 11, Sammie Crutchfield, seven, and Curley Harris, six, charged with housebreaking, was continued in the Jessamine circuit court until the June term.

A. E. Gibbons has been awarded the contract for painting and decorating the residence of M. J. Parry, under way of construction, on East Main. When finished it will be one of the handsomest homes in Central Kentucky.—Advocate.

W. B. Anderson, for years a well-known hotel proprietor of Barbourville, and better known to the traveling public as "Boss" Anderson, died at the age of 77. He was the father of Finley B. Anderson, who testified in the Caleb Powers trial at Georgetown. Mr. Anderson was a delegate to the Baltimore convention that nominated Abram Wakeman.

A Middlesboro dispute says: Miss Edith Bartholomew, who has become famous as the "hoo" girl, has recovered from the truancy with which she was stricken last Thursday, only to find herself dumb. She is suing Charles Parma for $10,000 damages for scaring her by shouting "hoo" at her on the street. She can not talk. Otherwise she is bright and vivacious.

It is said that a peace agreement has been made by the factions in Clay county. Sheriff Rev. White, it is understood, will resign his office and move to Winchester. Others will lay down their arms.

Carlo Little, the Manchester lawyer, and John G. White, of Winchester, were instrumental in bringing about the peace agreement. Later, in pursuance of the terms of the treaty of peace, Sheriff Rev. White has resigned and will go to Madison county to live.

A chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy has been organized at Danville with the following officers:

Mrs. R. J. Breckinridge, President;

Mrs. J. C. Bogue, Vice President;

Mrs. J. S. Gashwiller, Secretary;

Miss Margaret Kinnard, Treasurer;

Mrs. E. M. Green, Historian.

The other members are Mrs. Mary Kinnard, Mrs. Fred Harris, Mrs. J. B. Nichols, Miss Emma Nichols, Mrs. Ira Taylor, Mrs. Annie Tribble, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Wm. Ayres, Miss Eva Temple and Mrs. Levi Hubble.

Andrew Carnegie made a donation of $5,000 for the endowment of a fund for superannuated and disabled employees of the Carnegie Company. He also wrote a letter to the people of Pittsburg announcing his retirement from active business and giving his reasons therefor. He and his family have gone to Europe to spend seven months.

John G. Hauk, of Lexington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Wyatt, and Paul Drayton Porter, of Tupelo, Miss., is announced for Tuesday, April 2d.

The Wyatts were rather recently residents of this place and the young lady is a grand-daughter of David Best, of this city.

The prospective groom is a former student of Kentucky University and is reputed to be one of the most gifted and promising young men of the South.

The first two days of circuit court were consumed with the case of Wm. Walker for cutting Ed Ross and resulting in a fine of $100 against the defendant.

The counsel were Hon. Robert Hardling, of Danville, and L. L. Walker for the defense and R. H. Tomlinson and Attorney J. S. Owsley for the Commonwealth.

The trial of A. J. Hammack for shooting James Pointer, of Flat Woods, is now in progress.

Nettie Bogie was granted a divorce from Loton Bogie.

The trial of Luther Ray for the killing of Edgar Brown on election night is set for Monday.

Gov. W. O. Bradley and Hon. R. C. Warren will represent plaintiff and Robt. Hardling and R. H. Tomlinson defendant.

A blizzard and sleet storm blocked street traffic and demoralized wires at Marinette, Wis., and cut Milwaukee off from the outside world by blowing down hundreds of telephone and telegraph poles.

LANCASTER.

J. C. Thompson has been quite sick for several days from an attack of erysipelas.

Mrs. E. G. Kauffman and son, Clay, are visiting Mrs. Alice Lusk at Hustonville.

Hon. R. C. Warren has worn the ermine with much dignity in the absence of Judge M. C. Saufley.

The Christian Endeavor Society, recently organized by Elder A. H. Moore, has membership of 40.

Mrs. Thomas Miller has sold her farm of 45 acres at $45 to Victor Lear, whose farm this tract adjoins.

Nixon Perkins is reported as making no permanent improvement. Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Gaines, of Danville, were in this city Wednesday.

McCurley & Lawson shipped a car load of hogs to the city market a few days ago. Bright Herring bought a pair of mules for $250.

S. E. Welsh, Jr., of Berea, is the guest of George M. Patterson, Miss Polly Taylor, of Gilberts Creek, is visiting Miss Katie Simpson.

Rumor has it that there is soon to be a marriage of a wealthy young trader of this place and one of the bannister young ladies of the county.

Walker Hudson, Louis Herdon, Slim Anderson, Will West, Misses Pearl Bettis and Bessie Guiley constitute the graduating class of the Garrard Graded School.

The Lancaster orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Long, will furnish their first music for the public on Friday night at the declamatory entertainment.

I have a farm of 130 acres, four miles from Lancaster, that I will sell at a bargain, and I can give the purchaser immediate possession of same. J. C. Hembill.

DR. CLIFTON FOWLER.

THE hottest fight among democrats of this county in years is almost at an end and late tomorrow afternoon we will know who will represent us in the next Legislature as well as who will fill the various county offices for the next four years beginning January 1st. Some of the gentlemen to be voted for in tomorrow's primary have been candidates for several years and in that long time have shaken the hand of probably every voter in Lincoln county. These gentlemen have spent considerable time and no doubt some money in attempting to realize their fond hopes and it is but natural that they will be disappointed if they fail to reach the goal. They are all democrats though and will soon forget about what it "might have been" and with determined hearts will at once begin to help elect their more successful competitors. The candidates and their friends have behaved themselves exceedingly well so far and we sincerely trust that the few remaining hours of the campaign will bring about nothing that will cause a change of the good feeling now existing and that a love feast rather than dissension and tumult will be the result of tomorrow's primary. Let every democrat go to the polls and help in the making of a ticket that will so disconcert the republicans that they will abandon hope of defeating it and will not have the gall to attempt to do so. Lincoln county is democratic, democrats pay more than three-fourths of the taxes and it is but right and just that democrats should manage the affairs of the county. Name a good ticket and they will certainly do so.

WE thank the Louisville Times for calling attention to an error in the last issue of this paper, with reference to the appointment of St. Louis Fair commissioners. We wrote Carter as plainly as is possible for us, but the intelligent compositor made it Carlisle and placed us in the position of printing a misstatement of facts both as to the appointment and the character of the appointee. Carlisle may have gotten out of line with the democratic party, but he is not so far lost to common decency as to accept favors from a republican president.

GEN. HARRISON's last days were darkened by the action of his children towards him after his second marriage and his treatment by President McKinley, who sought to humiliate him before his son, Russell. He leaves a young wife who was his first wife's niece and by whom he had a daughter, who was as the child of his old age, the joy of his life.

THE salary of Charles M. Schwab, president of the steel trust, has been increased from $800,000 to $1,000,000 per year, and a contract made with him for five years at the latter figure. Mr. Schwab is one of those who readily agree with Senator Scott that trusts are "good things."

TWENTY-FIVE Clay county boys passed through London on their way to join the standing army. If among the number there are some of those who have helped to make Clay county's reputation what it is, their departure will occasion little or no regret.

ELL H. BROWN was nominated for representative by Nelson county democrats.

THE sudden termination of ex-President Harrison's short illness in death, came like a shock to the country, which was not prepared to realize that the man of stalwart form and colossal brain had joined the innumerable caravan which moves to the mysterious realm. A great man has fallen and the whole country, regardless of party lines, mourns the death of a scholar and a statesman, who served the people as their chief magistrate with singular ability and fidelity. Though an ardent republican he was not always in touch with the party leaders, above whom he soared as an eagle. Since retiring from the presidency, he has conducted himself with great propriety, shrinking from public notice, but always willing to give his advice and counsel when called upon. Like Lincoln's he fame has grown all the time and will continue to do so, while history will give him place among the greatest statesmen of his day, and those who taunted him with reference to his inability to wear his grandfather's hat will unite in agreeing that he was a greater man, even than Gen. William Henry Harrison, with whom he was so lavishly compared. As a soldier in the civil war, in which he rose from colonel to general, as U. S. Senator and as president he met all the requirements of manhood and leaves a name that will live forever in the annals of American statesmanship.

EVERTYBODY, who knew clever and big hearted Pat McDonald, for many years editor of the Western Argus and a noted Frankfort politician, will regret to hear of his death which occurred yesterday. He was a good man and a peerless democrat.

WE still have our money on Bradley for U. S. judge. He is dead sure of the appointment, which ought to have been his without question or opposition.

Walton For R. R. Commissioner.

The State press is making highly complimentary notice of W. P. Walton's candidacy for railroad commissioner, which he and the writer fully appreciate. Following is a fair sample:

Mr. William P. Walton, of Stanford, formerly editor of The Morning Democrat, and one of the leading democrats of the State, is a candidate for railroad commissioner from this district. He is a candidate to succeed Charles C. McChord, of Washington county, the present incumbent, who, it is understood, will be a candidate for governor at the next election. Mr. Walton is one of the best democrats in Kentucky and his loyalty to his party has won for him the admiration of all men. For years he fought the battles of democracy in the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL, and later on he directed the footsteps of The Morning Democrat in the right path. He is a successful editor, publisher and business man and is particularly well fitted for the position which his friends have urged him to stand for. William P. Walton is all energy in his every task and he will make a vigorous campaign. His nomination and election would be a matter of congratulation for the district.—Lexington Democrat.

Mr. Walton has done more sledge-hammer work for his party than any newspaper man in this section, and if his desire is not granted, the party will show itself ungrateful. Indeed.—Lancaster Record.

If loyalty and devotion to his party count for anything, it looks as if W. P. Walton should win hands down the railroad commissionership.—Advocate.

POLITICAL.

Gov. Durbin says that two years hence he will sign a bill to pay the Southern Indiana home guards who opposed Morgan.

Ex-Congressman W. E. Fuller, of Iowa, offered the post of Assistant Attorney General of the United States, has declined the job.

The republican Senatorial Convention at Madisonville nominated John Feland, Jr., and the one at Burkesville named John W. Catron.

State Senator N. W. Utley, of Eddyville, has announced that he will be a candidate for Congress in the First district to succeed Representative Wheeler.

That Government appropriation of $5,000,000 to the St. Louis Exposition seems to have been made chiefly for the purpose of providing nine $5,000 salaries for that number of "statesmen out of a job."—Louisville Times.

The Nebraska Senate has passed a bill to prohibit fusion of political parties in that State. It probably will pass the House and become a law.

Opponents of the measure denounce it as a scheme to keep the republicans in power.

Benjamin Harrison was defeated in his race for Governor of Indiana in 1876 but he later on wiped out that little demerit mark—if he is a demerit in the light, or shadow, which the late Gov. Mount and the present Gov. Durbin have cast upon that office.—Lou. Times.

A civil service examination will be held at Danville April 28th to fill the position of typewriter, clerk, qualified as stenographer and typewriter; general land office service, elevator conductor and press feeder; promotion to clerk, railway mail clerk, skilled laborer, stenographer, and typewriter.

There are several candidates for the examination for the revenue service, which will be held next fall.

MISS DOLLIE McROBERTS has returned from a delightful visit to the Misses Lyne in Fayette.

Mr. J. S. WELLS, wife and daughter, of Danville, spent yesterday with her homefolks at Walnut Flat.

MISS ALMA WRIGHT, daughter of the late Judge J. E. Wright, orders her paper sent to Hoffman, Montana.

MISSSES MARY AND SUSIE SAUNDERS and Master Miller Saunders went to Louisville yesterday to visit their aunt.

LITTLE MARGARET HARDING, daughter of Robert Harding, had a few of her young friends help her to celebrate her birthday.—Danville News.

JOE E. ROUT, of the L. & N., is up to see his grandmother, Mrs. America Rout, who is still suffering from the effects of a fall received several days ago.

E. T. MINOR, who was seriously shot at Lancaster some two months ago, has sufficiently recovered to return from Louisville, where he has been under treatment.

MRS. ANNIE McCCLARY, of Stanford, is visiting the family of Mr. Greenberry Bright. Mrs. Mary Bowman will entertain at cards Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. S. Rowland.—Advocate.

GEORGE W. EDWARDS, who was taken with pneumonia while serving on the Wilson jury last week, writes that he is doing pretty well and will soon be all right. He is very thankful for the kindness he received at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hardin and others while ill at the St. Asaph Hotel.

MARRIOTT.—Mr. S. A. Marriott, of Nolin, Hardin county, who married Miss Nelly Lewis, daughter of the late Wm. Lewis, of this county, died Monday of paralysis, aged about 60. The wife and one child survive.

IT was reported yesterday that Mr. James Dodderer had dropped dead, but a short while afterward that gentleman came walking up the street declaring that there was nothing in the rumor and that he was still a candidate for magistrate.

DON'T fail to participate in the primary tomorrow if there is a spark of democracy left in you. Pay no attention to the republicans who are trying to keep you from going into the primary, for it is their game to get democrats to go unpledged in order that they may work on them for the final election. Remember the polls open at 6 o'clock and close at 4 and don't fail to vote.

JOE JEFFERSON, the greatest of actors, will be at the Lexington Opera House, April 11, for a matinee and evening performance. It will perhaps be the last time the people of this section will have the chance to see him and in order that they may do so, W. P. Walton and wife will charter a party to the Blue Grass city. Manager Charles Scott offers a special rate and the Cincinnati Southern will do so, if a sufficient number goes. Send in your name early if you wish to join the party.

Prices of tickets will range from 50¢ to $2. People in this vicinity can order through Mr. Walton or write direct to Charles Scott, Manager, Lexington.

THE latest thing is a Cast Range with steel ovens; 25 per cent saving in fuel. G. H. Farris & Co.

J. H. BAUGHMAN & Co. will sell you hay and feed of all kinds at almost your own price in order to reduce stock.

As our customers have shown such an appreciation of the "Terrible Tumble" in prices in Groceries, &c., we have concluded to extend the offer for another week, to Saturday March 23rd, 1901. Warren & Shanks.

FIRE.—Mr. A. G. Eastland's roof caught fire from a spark from the chimney yesterday morning and the blaze was under considerable headway when discovered. Assisted by his daughters, Mr. E. formed a voluntary fire company and put out the fire with the aid of the fire laddies.

FROST won't hurt your beans if you will observe the following suggestion of George W. Edwards, of the East End, the bean raiser: Stick a peg at each end of the row and stretch from one end to the other five or six yard strings over the tops of the beans and the yarn will absorb the frost.

HOME AT AUCTION.—As I am going to leave Danville I will on Thursday, March 21st, at 10 A. M. sell at auction my home in that city. Persons in search of a good house at moderate price and on easy terms should not miss this chance. Go see the house before day of sale. H. Giovannoli, Danville, Ky.

THE names of the candidates to be voted for to-morrow will be found at the top of the first column on our editorial page. Look over the list carefully and vote for the gentleman you think can poll the best vote in November next. Let aside personal feeling for the nounce and have only the interest of the party at heart.

ACCIDENT.—As Mr. J. R. Alford was coming down stairs at Mrs. George D. Warren's yesterday morning, his head began to swim and he fell. He was picked up by the homefolks when it was found that his nose was badly cut and that he was otherwise bruised and hurt about the face. As Mr. Alford is very old his friends fear that he can not survive the shock.

DO IT THIS WAY.—The following will give a good idea as to how to vote in tomorrow's primary. Stamp your X in the square to the right of the name of the person you wish to vote for. Mr. Bryan isn't running this time, but if he were, this is the way his name would appear on the ballot:

WILL. J. Bryan, - - - X

WAS HIS SCHOOLMATE.—Mr. J. C. McKee, the Kingsville fruit man, tells us that he attended school in Ohio for two years with Ex-President Ben Harrison. He says the ex-president when a boy was a fine student and a smart fellow, but that he was very unpopular because of a too bountiful share of dignity. Mr. McKee has great respect for Mr. Harrison, and while differing with him politically, has watched his course in life with much interest.

HURT.—P. H. Taylor, candidate for the republican nomination for county attorney of Casey, was badly hurt about his back and right leg by being thrown with much force from his horse while canvassing on Stolling Fork. His horse slipped up with him. Dr. Murphy was at once called and has had him in his care since the accident. The doctor permitted him to ride in a buggy to his home, but thinks he will be unable to make any further canvass before the primary election, which will be held March 30th.

GENTRY.—James B. Gentry, one of Stanford's most popular young men, died at Thomasville, Ga., Wednesday night, aged 40. He went to that place early in November last, with the hope of regaining his health, but his vitality had been gaoked on by the dread disease so long that the change of climate had very little effect on him. Nearly 10 years ago Mr. Gentry's lungs began to trouble him but not until the last two or three years did he think they were very much diseased and it was then that he and his sister, Mrs. Eliza Blalow, who was with him when he died, went to New Mexico and remained there for months. He was not much benefited there. Mr. Gentry was a successful farmer and raiser of thoroughbred horses until a few years ago, when he and his brothers sold their farm on Hawkins' branch. Polite and affable, "Jim" Gentry was liked by all who knew him and the news of his death brought sadness to many a heart. Mr. Gentry never professed religion, but was a straight-forward, honorable man who scorned a mean or little deed. After short services at the grave at 1:30 this afternoon all that is mortal of the clever young man will be laid to rest in Buffalo Cemetery. Peace to his ashes.

GOLDEN WEDDING.—Prof. L. D. Sampson, of the Chicago School of Journalism, was on Tuesday's train, returning from Barbourville, where he went to attend the golden wedding of his parents, Joseph and Emeline Sampson. All the family of seven children were at home, one of them, Joseph Jr., coming from South Dakota, where he has lived 20 years, to be present. The friends of Mr. L. D. Sampson, who used to be the J. J.'s correspondent at Barbourville, will be glad to know that he is prospering in the Windy City and making a big reputation for himself.

FINED.—Judge Carson had a big day in his court Tuesday. Whitt and John Walls caught fines of $15 and $10 respectively for resisting Marshal Jones when he went to arrest them and Jacob Walls and Will Yoem were fined $8 and $5.50 for imbibing too freely. Babe Hansford, colored, was given a $10 fine for drunkenness. Wesley Detaney, aged 12, was brought here from Kingville, charged with putting obstructions on the C. S. track, but Judge Hally was not here and Judge Carson concluded the case. The boy placed two big rocks and a can on the track to see the engine knock them off, he said.

WE have the locating engineers of the Southern Railroad with us, but whether or not we will get the road remains to be seen. Messrs. Charles Murry and C. C. Coffey, in charge of a corps of civil engineers stretched their tents at the water works a few days ago and yesterday morning they had gotten as far as J. H. McAllister's with their survey. They are sticking pretty close to the route. Capt. Mabel laid out several years ago. It is not expected that these gentlemen will tell all they know about the Southern road and the building of a line to connect its northern and southern system, but it is apparent that they are pleased with the route this way. Our people should extend to the gentlemen every courtesy in their power and make their sojourn in our midst as pleasant as possible. They are deserving of our best treatment.

Dr. Clifton Fowler for Magistrate.

Knowing Dr. Clifton Fowler's fitness for the office of magistrate as I do, I desire as a taxpayer of this magisterial district to ask the voters to consider his claims at the primary to-morrow. In the first place I believe he is one of the very best men in the county, I know that he is a true blue democrat and surely there are none who will deny the fact that he is a successful farmer. As president of various turnpikes he has proven to the people of Lincoln that he is the best roadmaker in the county. When he was made president of the Hanging Fork & Green River pike it was in bad condition financially and otherwise, but the first year of his management it declared a 6 per cent. dividend. Dr. Fowler took charge of the Turnersville, McKinney Station & Coffey's Mill pike when one gate was thrown open, the roadbed being in such a bad fix. In a short time it paid $1,000 on an old debt. James A. Harris, A. K. Deny, W. B. Woods and other such citizens got him to take the presidency of the Knob Lick pike, which he soon made the best in the county, in the meantime spanning Knob Lick and Hanging Fork with iron bridges that cost about $1,800. This pike never failed to declare a dividend of from 5 to 6 per cent. while the doctor had charge. I merely mention this to show that Dr. Fowler is a success at whatever he attempts and to further prove that he is of the kind of timber that we need for magistrate. His name is not printed on the ballots, but we believe enough of his admirers will write his name on the dotted line below the other candidates for magistrate to nominate him by a good majority.

A CITIZEN.

MATRIMONIAL.

Dr. W. J. Childers, of Livingston, and Miss Fannie McMullan, of Pine Hill, were married at Mt. Vernon by Rev. Evers.

At Peru, Ind., John Bolting, a widower of 41, was married to Mrs. Lucy Hays, 70. Each of them has a large family of grown children.

Greenup county lays claim to the oldest married couple in the State in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. John Holbrook, of Warnock. Mr. Holbrook is 81 and his wife is 88, and they have been married 73 years.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The Broadway church, Louisville, gave for foreign missions last year $1,100.

Dowdlets will establish a branch of the "Zion Christian Catholic Church" at Danville.

The First Baptist church at Fort Wayne, Ind., suspended indefinitely 55 of its members who failed to pay the preacher.

Sunday week, Elder R. G. Frank, ex-Kentuckian, took up collection at his church in Philadelphia, for missionary purposes, and raised $900.

H. H. Hiltz, of Williamsburg, writes as follows to the Baptist Argus: "We have just closed a glorious meeting with Evangelist T. T. Martin. There were 21 additions by baptism and several by letter. No man has ever been to Williamsburg who more completely won the people. A crowded house to the morning with chairs to the aisle, and an overflowing house at night heard him with great delight.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Tuesdays and Fridays

$1 PER YEAR CASH

When not paid $2.00 will be charged.

Entered in the post-office at Stanford as second-class matter.

BRODHEAD.

Dr. Percy Benton was summoned to Mt. Sterling on a sad errand, the death of his mother. The doctor has the sympathy of the writer for he knows what it is to give up a mother.

Our postmaster is in Mt. Vernon. A. E. Albright and Wm. Adams, two younger gentlemen have opened a full line of goods at the Collier & Owens stand and Mr. Albright invites his old customers to call and see their new line of goods.

Our postoffice caught fire last week and burned out the cabinet and all with the entire lot of mail. The fire was extinguished before any great damage was done. Mrs. Evans had just bought a new cabinet and put it in the post office.

Bro. A. J. Pike went to Buckeye last Friday night and returned Tuesday night and reports Mrs. Wm. G. Jones, one of his faithful members very ill and has been for six or eight weeks. She is convalescing at present. Her many friends will be glad to know she is improving.

Miss Linda Pettus, of Preachersville, is an optie patient of Dr. Burdett, the most noted optician in Kentucky. Mr. J. E. Thompson, late of Livingston, is with Mrs. Thomas Francisco, her sister, Ora Frith, the noted orator of J. G. Frith, entered Lexington Business College Monday.

J. H. Dunn, one of our best citizens and merchants, went to Danville on a business trip and came back by Lancaster. Miss Ella Dunn, who has been behind the counter in the absence of her brother, makes a graceful clerk. Also Thorpe and wife, of Riley's, are at the bedside of Mrs. G. W. Thorpe. She is very low at this writing. Wm. A. Owens, of the Quail neighborhood, was in town Tuesday and reported Mrs. Martin Owens as being quite sick. She is the mother of Dr. J. H. Watson, of our town. Miss Lee Stone, the beautiful daughter of F. F. Stone, of Lancaster, whom we reported last week as visiting Misses Sallie Purcell and other relatives of our section, returned home Tuesday. Mr. Robert Pike, of Livingston, spent several days with us this week. Misses Amy Pike, Delpha Collier, Bettie Wilcox and Horace Benton came home from school Saturday and returned Sunday. Miss Cora and Master Benjie Griffitt, of Mt. Vernon, came down with Miss Amy Pike and spent Sunday with her. Miss Bertha Martin, one of the teachers in the school at Mt. Vernon, was visiting Miss Sallie Purcell.

The writer was invited to take dinner at Mr. Joshua Dunn's Saturday, it being the 81st birthday of Mr. George T. McRoberts, who was born March 9th, 1829. Bro. McRoberts married a Miss Ellen S. Gaines, a good, Christian lady, who was called to leave the good old man in June, 1890. They had borne to them five children—three girls and two boys, viz Mrs. Susan E. Dunn, wife of Joshua Dunn, Mrs. Rebecca B. Henderson, wife of James Henderson and Mrs. Bettie Frith, the wife of J. G. Frith. The two boys, B. B. and J. T. McRoberts, are both in Indiana. Mr. McRoberts united with the Christian church in 1860. His wife and children are all members of the same church, and are splendid democrats. Mr. McRoberts has been a subscriber to the INTERIOR JOURNAL from the time that F. J. Campbell issued the first copy, 28 years ago, and has never failed to pay for his paper a single year. It is next to the Bible with him. We can truthfully say we know of no better man as a Christian and as a citizen than Mr. McRoberts. So here he is hoping that he may live to enjoy many more birthday dinners with his children and many friends, for all who know him love and honor him and if he and the writer live until the 9th of March, 1902, I will make it a point to spend that day with this good old man.

According to a late census bulletin, Kentucky has a land area of 40,000 square miles. The largest counties in the State are Pike, 500 square miles; Christian, 394, and Hardin, 616. Robertson is the smallest, with 96 square miles. Trimble comes next with 132 and Campbell follows with 145. Jefferson has 371 square miles.

SURE CURE FOR GRIP.—We don't know much about the effect of material media upon the human system, but we did write, fill and take the following prescription, which knocked the grip higher than Gideroy's kite: Four quarts of whisky, into which were dissolved four ounces of loaf sugar. To this we added a teaspoonfull of water and another quart of whisky, and then placed it over a hot fire and let it boil sufficiently long to boil out all the water. We then stirred in a little more whisky to cool and gulped it down without batting an eye. In order to remove the taste from our mouth we took a little more whisky.—Glengowd Avant.

The casual caller came in and remarked to the snake editor:

"You didn't print that poem I sent you."

"Good guess."

"Why didn't you?"

"Well, you said in your letter that if I published it I should bear from you again."—Pittsburg Chronicle.
